

During our Science lesson I asked the children a question -What does an animal look like? Please can you now make me an animal. We had no discussion beforehand. Look what they came up with.

